

— CONFERENCE — jointly organized by the

Centre for European Research in Microfinance

And the European Microfinance Programme (EMP)

Prof. Malcolm HARPER

Emeritus Professor of Enterprise Development at Cranfield School of Management (UK)

What's wrong with microfinance, and what should be done about it?

Tuesday, October 4th, 2011

At 6.00pm

At Conference Room R42.4.502

Solvay Brussels School of Economics and Management

Université libre de Bruxelles

About the guest speaker:

Malcolm Harper was educated at Oxford, Harvard and Nairobi. He first worked in marketing in England, and then taught at the University of Nairobi. He was Professor of Enterprise Development at Cranfield School of Management, and since 1995 he has worked independently, mainly in India. He has published extensively on enterprise development, microfinance and livelihoods. He was Chairman of Basix Finance in India for ten years, and is Chairman of M-CRIL, the international microfinance and social rating company. He is chair, trustee and board member of a number of institutions in the United Kingdom, the Netherlands and India, and has worked on poverty issues in Bangladesh and Pakistan, and in North, East, Southern and West Africa, Latin America and the Caribbean, the Middle East and Gulf area, South and South East Asia and China, and in the United Kingdom.

Address:

Solvay Brussels School of Economics and Management
Université libre de Bruxelles (ULB)
42, Av. F.D. Roosevelt
1050 Brussels (Belgium)

Contact:

Didier Toussaint
+ 32 (0) 2.650.66.01
+ 32 (0) 65.37.32.79
cermi@ulb.ac.be cermi@umons.ac.be

The number of place is limited and registration is therefore compulsory.
Please confirm your presence by September 28th, 2011.

