

International Conference:

Gender mainstreaming in Microfinance: current debates and innovation

May, 16th 2008

21 av. F.D. Roosevelt, 1050 Brussels

Organised by Dr. Linda Mayoux and Prof. Beatriz Armendariz

Prof. Beatriz ARMENDARIZ currently teaches at Harvard University, University College London and is a Visiting Professor at the Solvay Business School. She holds a Ph.D. in Economics and is member of the CERMi. Her current researches focus on empowerment and gender issues in microfinance.

Dr. Linda MAYOUX is an international consultant on gender and microfinance with Oxfam Novib, World Bank and IFAD. She holds a Ph.D. in Political and Social sciences. She is specialised in gender issues, social development issues and community-based development

Speakers and participants:

- Soukeyna BAA (Executive Director INAFI, Senegal)
- Prof. Johan BASTIAENSEN (University of Antwerp)
- Deborah BURAND (WAM)
- Ben d'EXELLE (University of Antwerp)
- Dr. Isabelle GUERIN (Institut de Recherche pour le Développement - Université de Provence)
- Michel GENET (Credal)
- Prof. Nathalie HOLVOET (University of Antwerp)
- Prof. Marek HUDON (CERMi, ULB)
- Prof. Marc LABIE (CERMi, UMH)
- Prof. Pierre-Guillaume MEON (DULBEA and Centre Emile Bernheim, ULB)
- Maria NOWAK (ADIE)
- Anaïs PERILLEUX (CERMi, UMH)
- Prof. Ariane SZAFARZ (Centre Emile Bernheim and CERMi, ULB)